

Parameterized Window, Preset Model

This is a template MPH-file containing the preset physics interfaces, selections, parameterized geometry, and postprocessing operators for the application Thermal Performances of Windows. For a description of that application, including detailed stepby-step instructions showing how to build it, see Thermal Performances of Windows.

Application Library path: Heat_Transfer_Module/ Buildings_and_Constructions/windows_thermal_performances_preset